

Longmont Rotary 2007 Vocational Service Award Nomination Form

October is Rotary's Vocational Service Month. Annually Rotarians around the World honor individuals who, through their vocations, best demonstrate both the 4-Way Test and the Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions. It is our opportunity, as Rotarians, to formally recognize exemplary people whose high ethical standards in business set them apart in our community.

Who is Eligible to be Nominated?

Longmont Rotary Club members in good standing.

Longmont area business people and professionals who are nominated by our members.

Previous honorees may be nominated once every 5 years.

Please complete both sides and submit Nomination Forms by 9/18/07 to the Vocational Service Committee:

Name of Rotarian Submitting Nomination: _____

Best way to contact you? Phone: _____ Email: _____

If your nominee is selected for recognition, which Rotary lunch meetings are you available to give a 2-3 minute talk about him/her. (Rotarian and Nominee must both be present)? Oct 16 __, Oct 23 __, Oct 30 __. If you cannot make the presentation, which Rotarian can stand in for you? _____

Name of person you are nominating: _____

Business/Profession: _____

Business Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

How long has your nominee been in this business/profession? ___ years. How long in Longmont? ___ years

How long have you known your nominee? ___ years What is your relationship to him/her? _____

Declaration of Rotarians in Businesses and Professions Use bullets or briefly describe in 2-3 sentences. (maximum 10 points each)

1. How does your nominee use his/her vocation as an opportunity to serve?

- .
- .
- .

2. How does your nominee dignify and promote the highest ethical standards of his/her vocation?

- .
- .
- .

3. How does your nominee show fairness to those with whom he/she has a business relationship as well as to the public?

- .
- .
- .

4. How does your nominee improve the quality of life in our community through his/her vocational talents, providing opportunities for youth, and for the relief of others with special needs?

- .
- .
- .

~~~ Continued on Back ~~~

