PROGRAM

Joan Campbell reminded us that the compassion awards revolve around the Kanemoto family's tower of compassion beliefs. Love, empathy, understanding, gratitude for all things and to give selflessly are all traits that our award winners have. Jeff Korringa, Joan Campbell and Pat Maynard introduced the compassion award winners.

Noah Schaefer—2nd Grader at Frederick Elementary. Teacher Angie Oram, Principal Kathy Horning.

Mayra Osorio-Lopez—4th Grader at Frederick Elementary. Teacher Amber Mault, Principal Kathy Horning.

Joanna Hope Toohey—6th Grader. Homeschooled by Esther Toohey.

Emily Briggs—10th Grader at Niwot High School. Teacher Terry Kroenung, Principal Dennis Daly.

Bill and Muriel Harrison received the citizen's of the year award. Al Carr talked about how valuable his time with the Harrison's had been. They are both very community oriented and were always there if you needed them. Dr. Carr, John Caldwell and John Flanders nominated them because of the affect they had on their lives. Congratulations to the Harrison's!!!

Our Rotarian of the year was Edwina Salazar-Waldrip. Roger Jurgens spoke about her. Edwina is involved in many things. She always puts her heart into everything she does. Tom Redmond believes she is the epitome of Service above self. She is an inspiration to many.

Edwina expressed her gratitude for the award. She believes that literacy is so important. She thanked her family and friends for coming and had her daughter Natalie come up to the podium with her!
